The students of MCV pay tribute to the nostalgic Egyptian Building, which is also displayed on the cover of the yearbook.

Dr. Eugene Trani—President Of Virginia Commonwealth University

Dear Students:

Your memories as students of the Medical College of Virginia of Virginia Commonwealth University will find a permanent home in your yearbook. This record is obviously important to you as future alumni. It is equally important to your institution, for it also records a part of the University's history—your part.

That diverse history stretches back 154 years, when the Medical College of Virginia was founded as the medical department of Hampden-Sydney College. Today, the MCV Campus is part of a thriving institution: one of the Commonwealth's top three research, doctoral institutions and its largest urban university.

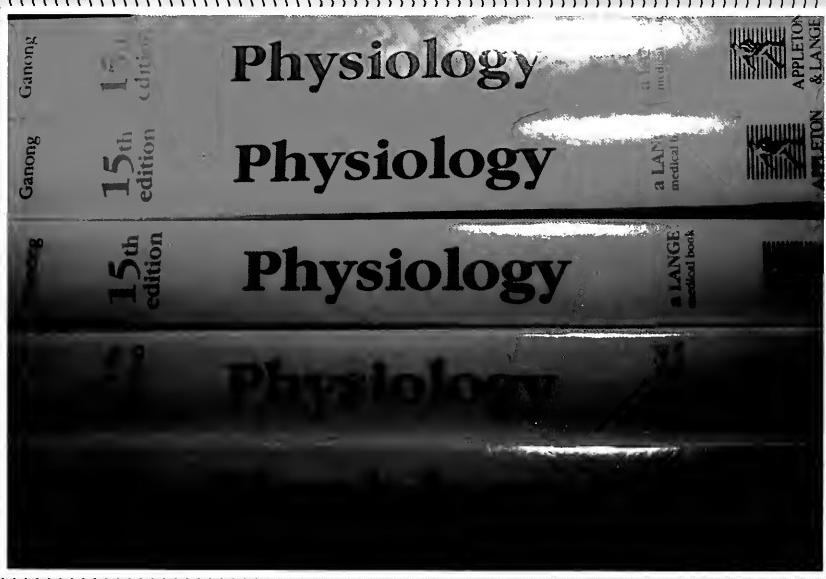

You are members of a 3,000-strong body who will be delivering health care in the communities of the Commonwealth of the future. It is among the most critical responsibilities in our society today, and you have been educated at one of the best medical schools in the country, and 64th among the top 100 research institutions. Over 85 percent of VCU's annual $71 million in research funding supports biomedical research on the MCV Campus.

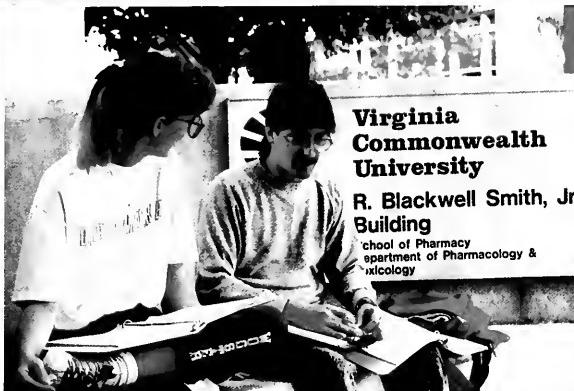

Your experiences as students form an essential contribution to our excellence in health-care teaching, research, and public service. Your contribution as health-care professionals will be critical to the need of our state to provide the highest-quality health care for Virginia's citizens. The example you will set as our alumni will continue to enhance the excellence of the Medical College of Virginia of Virginia Commonwealth University.

Your yearbook, therefore, will serve to remind us all of the role you have played in these essential missions of our institution.

Dr. Robert Clifton—Dean of Student Affairs

Dr. Robert Clifton

Secretary Carolyn Glasscock

Bear Hall, where the office of Dean Clifton is found.

An interview with Dean Clifton . . .

What does a "Dean of Student Affairs" do?

"O.K.! A general rule, generally speaking we handle things that are external to the classroom. None academic in nature, as they relate to students, Ex. Student Centers. We act as a go between or a liaison for the faculty and students. We also act as a repository for information for how to solve problems. The Dean of Students are for student campus affairs like SGA."

What is your role with the Student Government?

"The Student Government runs itself. I am only their advisor. I can not tell them what to do, I am the advisor."

What are your hopes for the future for MCV?

"I think generally my hope is to become more a part of the University and yet unigenus of a health center. Everybody here is in the health care business. I'd like to make sure we stay part of the University as a whole."

How long have you been with MCV?

"Ten years last September, ten years and three months."

What is your opinion about budgets cuts and how does it affect your role?

"I worry, budget cuts have to be made in society. I realize in the given economy adjustments have to be made. I believe that an education is more than going to class. You need an SGA, a student center, you need the library to be open for students."

How do budget cuts affect your role specifically?

"They often affect the number of hours you can keep places open, maintenance and also staffing are effected."

Bill and Ron play pool at the Larrick Center

Larrick Student Center worker—Steve Anama relaxes during work . . . Mr. Miller . . . he's got his feet on your desk!

Mr. James Miller manager of the Student Lerrick Center.

James Miller became the Manager of the Lerrick Student Center, on the MCV Campus, after 23½ years of service for the United States Air Force, in June of 1985. He received a B.S. in Psychology, from the University of Maryland, in 1978 and a M.A. in Human Resources Management from Pepperdine University, California, in 1980. Mr. Miller has organized the Student Center to provide programs and space for the students so they can expand themselves outside the classroom. It is where students can relax and make friends. The Student Center consists of two pool tables, a music room, a piano room, two meeting rooms and a large ball room.

Besides Mr. Miller's responsibilities to the Lerrick Student Center, he also acts as an advisor to the MCV/SGA. This activity entails monitoring student government activities and management of their budget. He also acts as a liaison between student groups and non-university groups. He also believes very strongly that in his role as student advisor "accessibility" by the students to him is very important. Whether it be for an important affair he's always available and truly interested.

Mr. Miller would like to see a recreational complex on the MCV Campus including more meeting/study rooms and a swimming pool. But due to the recent budget crunches these plans have had to be put on the backburner.

Mr. Miller has been married for 24 years to wife Charlotte, an RN at MCV, and two children, James II — 22 years old and Michele — 19 years old. In his off-duty time he is also involved in church, community, and university charitable activities.

Mr. Miller, Liz Pence, Erin Simon, Dr. Clifton & Steve Anama.

A Farewell to Mr. Arlick Brockwell

Arlick Brockwell Director of the
MCV GYM

Mr. Arlick Brockwell, Director of the MCV gym, has maintained that position for many years. 1992 will mark the end of his term as director of the gym. He has decided to retire and will be missed a great deal.

MCV students would like to take this opportunity to thank him for all his years at MCV and for all the support he has shown to all the students. The Yearbook staff would like to say a special thanks for making the 79th edition of the X-RAY extra special! To you . . . this book is dedicated!

The 1992 X-Ray was printed by offset lithography by Delmar Printing and Publishing. 176 pages and 1500 copies were printed on special stock 80 LBS paper. The cover is made of a lexotone maroon material, with gold foil stamping and a gold metalay of the Egyptian Building. The cover has been embossed and grained. Our Delmar representative was Lisa Dean.

The professional student photographer was Jean Lynn of Jean Lynn Photography—5118 Snead Road, 276-8699.

Substantial candid photography was developed by Simjo Photo—6530-A Mechanicsville Trnpk, Mechanicsville, 730-9332.

As editor of this years MCV Yearbook for the 79th edition of the "X-RAY". I would like to express a sincere thank-you to anybody and everybody who contributed to the production of the Yearbook.

The 1992 MCV Yearbook has set a few records this year. More candid photos were submitted this year than ever before, the amount of student portraits photographed were tremendous compared to previous years. What an accomplishment!

There are a few special people I need to personally thank . . . Doug Reed and Suzanne Pirint (RT-92's) (my assistant editors), I couldn't have done it without both of you. Thank-you for staying so many late nights. You guys were great! I love ya both!!

Mr. James Miller . . . for all of your encouragement and patience . . . you made this job a lot easier for me . . . I want to say a special thank-you!

Lisa Dean . . . you did almost as much work as we did . . . this yearbook definitely could not have looked as good as it does without your help!

Jean Lynn of Jean Lynn Photography . . . for all of your hard and professional work. Thank-you for allowing me to call so often and for all the extras you contributed.

My husband . . . Steven G. Burruss, you have been so patient and supporting for so long (twelve years in fact). You have had to be alone for many late nights with our two children (Karen and Steven II), which is no easy task. Don't forget I love you very much even though I wasn't home enough to tell you!

Dr. Jim Snyder . . . for all the great artwork you created for the yearbook. and lastly . . . Mr. Arlick Brockwell (Director of the MCV Gym). The 79th edition of the MCV Yearbook, "the X-RAY", (Titled: More Exposure) is dedicated to you. You will be missed a great deal for you have devoted much of your time to the students of the Medical College of Virginia.

Sincerely,
